Notes :-

IMPORTANT

1. (a) A member of the Company entitled to attend and vote at this meeting is entitled to appoint not more than two proxies to attend, speak and vote in his/her stead. Where such member's instrument of proxy appoints more than one proxy, the proportion of the shareholding concerned to be represented by each proxy shall be specified in the instrument of proxy. If no such proportion or number is specified, the first named proxy may be treated as representing 100 per cent of the shareholding and any second named proxy as an alternate to the first named.
- (b) Where a member of the Company is a relevant intermediary as defined in Section 181 of the Companies Act 1967 of Singapore, the member is entitled to appoint more than two proxies to exercise all or any of his rights to attend and to speak and vote at the meeting, but each proxy must be appointed to exercise the rights attached to a different Share or Shares held by him (which number and class of shares shall be specified).
- (c) A proxy need not be a member of the Company.
2. The instrument appointing a proxy or proxies shall be under the hand of the Member, or by his attorney duly authorized in writing. Where such instrument is executed by a corporation, it must be executed either under its seal, executed as a deed in accordance with the Companies Act 1967 or under the hand of its attorney or an officer duly authorized in writing. Where the instrument appointing a proxy or proxies is executed by an attorney on behalf of the appointor, the letter or power of attorney or other authority or a duly certified copy thereof must be lodged with the instrument appointing a proxy or proxies.
3. A body corporate which is a member may also appoint by resolution of its directors or other governing body, such person as it thinks fit to act as its authorised representative in accordance with its constitution and Section 179 of the Companies Act 1967 of Singapore.
